

ARIA

THE PARTNER KIT

Everything you need to share ARIA well,
in your voice, with the story straight.

THE SHORT VERSION

What ARIA is

ARIA is an AI strategic advisor for founders, coaches, and creators. She holds a member's complete astrology chart and Human Design next to their actual business, their offers, pricing, brand voice, and goals, and reads every question through both. The answer is never a horoscope and never a generic playbook. It is a next move, specific to them.

The first AI advisor fluent in your Human Design, your astrology, and your business.

YOUR DESIGN. YOUR SKY. YOUR NUMBERS.

We call the category Aligned Intelligence. It is our term, coined by founder Nikki Crowell: business strategy that treats how a founder is wired as an operational variable, weighed with the same seriousness as revenue.

WHO SHE IS FOR

Three people find ARIA

The Human Design first person. They know their type and their authority, and they have never had a tool that turns that knowledge into offers, pricing, and timing.

The astrology first person. They plan by the sky already. ARIA reads the current transits against their specific chart and their actual revenue, not a generic sun-sign forecast.

The strategy first person. They came for the business thinking. The chart is the personalization layer that makes the strategy fit, the way a tailor fits a suit.

When you share ARIA, lead with the door your audience already walks through. The other two doors are inside.

THE BOUNDARIES THAT PROTECT EVERYONE

ARIA is not a horoscope app, not a chatbot, and not a personality test. Timing guidance is planning, never a prediction or a guarantee. Never promise income, results, or outcomes on ARIA’s behalf, and never invent discounts or offers. If you are unsure whether a claim is accurate, ask us first: partners@alignedai.io.

THE STORY, IN YOUR VOICE

How to talk about ARIA

The strongest partner content is not an ad. It is you, describing the moment ARIA earned a place in your work. Three angles that consistently land:

The split

Your astrologer has never seen your revenue. Your business coach has never seen your chart. ARIA is the first advisor who holds both at once. Tell the story of living on one side of that split.

The specific moment

One real decision ARIA helped you make: a launch you timed, a price you settled, an offer you fixed. Specifics convert; summaries scroll past.

The difference

What changed when strategy started from how you are wired. Speak to the before and the after in your own work, not in hypotheticals.

VOICE NOTES

Write ARIA in all caps. Refer to ARIA as she, the way we do. Aligned Intelligence is our coined term, so introduce it as ours: the category we named. Speak to founders, coaches, and creators. Keep timing language in the register of planning: windows, conditions, favors, never fate or certainty.

Ready-to-paste captions, email blurbs, and bio lines live in your portal under Assets, each one with your referral link already inside. This kit is the story; the portal has the files.

THE MECHANICS

Your link, your earnings

- 1 Share your link
Your personal referral link is on your portal dashboard. Anyone who arrives through it is tracked to you for 60 days, so they are still yours if they subscribe weeks later.
- 2 They become a member
You earn 20% of every payment your referral makes during their first 12 months as a member. Each commission appears in your portal the same day the payment happens.
- 3 The commission clears
New commissions hold for a short refund-protection window before they become payable. You can watch each one move from pending to due in your portal.
- 4 You get paid
Cleared commissions bundle into a monthly payout, sent to the PayPal address in your account settings.

In practice: one referral on the annual plan earns you $288. One referral on the monthly plan who stays a year earns you $352.80.

HOUSE RULES

Share your link anywhere your audience genuinely lives: content, email, conversations, communities you belong to. Please do not run paid ads on ARIA brand terms, spam your link, or present yourself as ARIA or as our employee. You are a partner, and that word is accurate: this program exists so the people who get ARIA can be paid for saying so.
